The income statistics above are for all active U.S. Marketing Partners (Distributors), who were eligible to earn downline commissions from February 2013-January 2014. An active distributor is defined as anyone who 1) Executed an Orenda International Marketing Partner Application/Agreement. 2) Has sponsored at least one (1) person, and 3) Has had a commission check in at least 1 period/month within the reporting time frame. The average income for all active Distributors receiving commissions during the period February 2013-January 2014 was $6,114.25 (US Dollars) with a median check of $48.00 (US Dollars). The average income for All Distributors including inactive distributors during the period February 2013-January 2014 was $303.35 (US Dollars) and during this period 95.14% of all distributors had no customers or recruits and thus received no income at all. The earning of the distributors in this chart are not necessarily representative of the income, if any, that an Orenda Distributor can or will earn through his or her participation in the Orenda compensation Plan. These figures should not be considered as guarantees or projections of your actual earnings or profits. Any representation or guarantee of earnings would be misleading. Success with Orenda results only from successful sales efforts, which require hard work, diligence, and leadership. Your success will depend upon how effectively you exercise these qualities.
